Too much cannot be said in praise of the work of the club who have won the work of the citto who have won the last fourteen games out of sixteen played. Neither can all the compliments be bestowed upon the players for Mr. O'Neiti deserves the respect and thanks of all Norfolk people for his persistency and energy in getting to-gether the cinb which represents this city in the Virginia League, Yes, represents, that is the word, There was a time this season when the

There was a time this season when the team did not represent the city, but misrepresented her in a most unbe coming manner, but that time hus passed and the people look with pride upon the present forgetting the past, hoping that the tuture will bring forth even greater things, yea, even to hitching the "Clam's" percentage to the third place peg. There was a very good audience at the park to witness the last game of this season with the Rosnokes and but for the poor, very poor work of Umpire Phelan a good contest would, no doubt, have taken contest would, no doubt, have taken place, but, as it was, I helan began early in the game and so glaring were his decisions against the visitors that they seemed to lose all hope of win ning, consequently put up a dull, hatless came.

This man who was sent here by the League authorities at Richmond is no more fit to officiate as umpire in a game of ball than a Zulu warrior is to be Emperor of China. It is true that he gave several bad decisions against the home team, but they were nothing compared with what he did to Roan oke. The whole thing in a nutshell is that he is a home umpire, and the vis-iting club stands but little it any show. In marked contrast to the slow move In marked contrast to the slow move ments of the visitors was the "get at 'em' spirit exhibited by the Nortolks. Even Cote got on the coaching line and cried, 'Take a little more room, old man." He was relieved by Geier, who could only say 'look out, look out," But that was enough. It showed a disposition to be in the came and a disposition to be in the game, and that is all the patrons want or expect of a player.

Herr, "Big Ed," was in the box for Horr, "Big Ed," was in the box for the "Crows" and he pitched his usu ally steady game, allowing the "Ma gicians" but seven hits. Although if they had been treated right by Phelau, their hit column would have footed up exactly with that of the home boys, who made nine hits off Lloyd, who was in splendid form and humor until Phelau began to work too him, after that it began to work ton him, after that it was "all over." Roanoke went out in one, two, three order for the first three innings, but scored in the fourth after two men were out on Stabl's single. Herr's error and Padden's two base hit. Another run was added in the seventh on Mills error, Lewis double, Viox base on balls and Lloyd's single, and another man crossed the rubber in the ninth on Welch's single and Viox's dandy two base hit. That was all. Three runs to the good, Lynchburg won with consummate ease, scoring eight runs, while the "Truckers" never got but two men as far as third base. The were Hargrove and Hallman, each of whom cracked out a three bagger.

For Lynchburg Berryhill, the first man up, repeated his feat of the day before by banging the bull over the lence for a home run. And then the music began and only ended when the home boys had scored fourteen hits
